AMGEN[®]

Dear colleagues,

It is a great pleasure and honor to welcome you in Athens between 27th and 29th of February 2020 in the joined meeting organized by the Immunonephrology Working Group (IWG) of ERA EDTA and Mayo Clinic (Rochester USA) in collaboration with Hellenic Society of Nephrology. This meeting represents a Winter School in Nephrology similar to the successful meeting organized last year in Prague with the collaboration of Professor Fernando Fervenza from Mayo Clinic and the Board of IWG. According to the experience from last year, the topics of presentation are selected by the speakers and are not exclusively related to glomerular diseases. However, glomerular diseases still represent the main topic of this Winter School in Nephrology. New knowledge in pathogenesis and new trends in the treatment of glomerular and other kidney diseases including renal transplantation will be discussed by distinct speakers with great experience in each topic.

We are anticipating you with great impatience and pleasure for the Winter School of Nephrology 2020 in Athens, one of the most attractive destinations in Europe.

Dimitrios S. Goumenos

Professor of Internal Medicine-Nephrology

Head of the School of Medicine of University of Patras
